

BMC INTERNATIONAL SUMMER MEET 2026

OFFICIAL INVITATION

To whom it may concern,

Koninklijke Nederlandse Klim- En Bergsportvereniging (NKBV)

Netherlands

The British Mountaineering Council (BMC) is pleased to formally invite representatives from NKBV to attend the BMC International Summer Meet 2026, taking place in North Wales, United Kingdom, from Saturday 13 June to Saturday 20 June 2026.

The BMC is the national representative body for climbers, hill walkers and mountaineers in England and Wales, and a member of the UIAA. The International Summer Meet is a long-established cultural and sporting exchange, bringing together climbers from partner federations to share mountaineering experience, skills, and knowledge.

The invited participants will attend the meet as guests of the BMC for the purposes of recreational climbing, cultural exchange, and participation in the organised programme of activities. They will not undertake any paid or unpaid employment, volunteering, or services while in the United Kingdom.

During the meet, participants will be based in the Ynys Ettws hut in Llanberis with climbing activities taking place across climbing areas in North Wales as part of the organised programme coordinated by the BMC.

The BMC will provide:

- Organisation and coordination of the meet programme
- Accommodation for the duration of the event

Participants are responsible for:

- International travel to and from the United Kingdom
- Valid travel and rock-climbing insurance
- Any personal expenses outside the meet programme

This letter is issued in support of the participants' United Kingdom visa applications, where required. Should you require any further information to support this application, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Yours faithfully,

British Mountaineering Council
